IN PROVINCIAL CONGRESS,

Watertown, May 5, 1775.

WHEREAS his Excellency General Gage, since his Arrival into this Colony, hath conducted as an Instrument in the Hands of an arbitrary Ministry, to enslave this People; and a Detachment of the Troops under his Command, has of late been by him ordered to the Town of Concord to destroy the public Stores, deposited in that Place for Use of the Colony: And whereas by this clandestine and perfidious Measure, a Number of respectable Inhabitants of this Colony, without any Provocation given by them, have been illegally, wantonly, and inhumanly slaughtered by his Troops:

Therefore RESOLVED,

THAT the said General Gage, hath by these and many other Means utterly disqualified himself to serve this Colony as a Governor, and in every other Capacity, and that no Obedience ought in future to be paid by the several Towns and Districts in this Colony to his Writs, for calling an Assembly, or to his Proclamations, or any other of his Acts or Doings; but that on the other Hand, he ought to be considered and guarded against, as an unnatural and inveterate Enemy to the Country.
